Summary

- One day course
- Skills should be refreshed at regular intervals to remain current

Course Description

This course is ideal for residential and domiciliary care workers including carers, supervisors, trainers and managers working with older people, vulnerable adults and service users living in their own home.

The new course will enable the care worker to explore the legislation, policy and procedures that relate to the safeguarding of vulnerable adults.

It aims to raise awareness of the legislation that applies to vulnerable groups and how these policies can be applied in practice. It covers issues such as types of abuse that can occur and how to identify them, developing a safeguarding culture and creating a safe environment.
